FROM THEIR MAJESTIES

Unto the Outlands do Cameron and AnneAliz send greetings.

Congratulations to Hrothgar and Madigan, Crown Prince and Princess of the Outlands! Crown was an incredible tournament. We thank all who participated as fighters, consorts, marshals, heralds, and list officers for this tourney and for the Warlord tourney the next day. Special thanks to THLdy Triaria who agreed to run lists with no warning the day of the event! St. Golias put on a wonderful event. We thank Mistress Kathryn for co-ordinating the feast, and Sir Christoph for running the event. Congratulations also to Syr Darius of Jaxartes, winner of the Warlord tourney the next day.

Being the Crown of the Outlands has been a great honor. We thank all who have shared insights and inspiration with Us, and We hope friendships forged during this time will continue. We end Our time as Crown with a greater love of Our land, and knowledge of its lore.

May Their Royal Highneses find great prosperity and joy during Their reign.

FROM THEIR HIGHNESSES

Greetings fair Outlanders, from Hrothgar and Madigan, Crown Prince and Princess of the Outlands and Lord and Lady of Argonia. We hope these letters find you enjoying the coming of Spring and all the Outlands has to offer.

We would like firstly to thank the Shire of Saint Golias for their wonderful work and hospitality at Crown Tournament, and would also like to thank all who attended for their kindness and support. We are overjoyed by the honor of serving the Outlands as heirs to Their Majesties Cameron and AnneAliz.

We would encourage all of you who do not know us to make our acquaintance, and to remind those of you that we share friendships with that we welcome input and value sound advice.

The spring and summer schedule is full of wondrous events; we hope to attend many and visit all of the reaches of the Kingdom.

We shall travel to the beautiful far reaches of the Outlands for our coronation and do most cordially invite one and all to join us. In an attempt to leave time on Sunday for, what is for some, a long trip, we will be holding both the Queen's Champion and Defender of the Queen's Heart tournaments on Saturday after Their Majesties' opening court. In order to accomplish this, things must be run efficiently, so come prepared. Coronation court will occur after the Tournaments, and will be followed by the feast. Peers' circles are tentatively planned for Sunday morning; we have scheduled them so that they can be over by early afternoon. Please refer to the article on coronation later in this publication for more details.

We are in service to Crown and Kingdom,

Hrothgar and Madigan

FROM THE OUTGOING SENESCHAL

Unto the good people of the Kingdom of the Outlands come greetings one last time from Maestra Francesca di Pavia, outgoing Kingdom Seneschal:

Yes, this will be my final letter as Kingdom Seneschal. Mistress Coemri ni Eithne, who has been my deputy since I took office two years ago, will assume the office at Coronation.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank many people who have made this sometimes difficult job much easier. First, I wish to thank all the Crowns of this realm whom it has been my privilege to serve: Irel and Ileana, Torin and Elisheva, Lycurgus and Mikhailina, and Cameron and AnneAliz. All served this Kingdom admirably and with much care and dedication. I extend my deep thanks to my fellow Kingdom Officers for all their hard work and efforts to pull together for the good of the Outlands. I also thank all of the Seneschals of the Baronies, Shires, Cantons, and Colleges of this Kingdom. It has been wonderful to work with all of you.

On a more personal note, many thanks to the members of the House of St. Mary's Abbey for their support, crying shoulders, backrubs, and love. Special thanks to Klaus, Brianna, Kate, Douglas, Keridwen, James, Cara, and Leila - I love you guys! And, finally and most important, thanks to my dear Lord, Maistre Louis-Philippe, for his patience, understanding, and support through everything.

It has truly been an honor to serve this Kingdom as Seneschal. This is a great Kingdom, and it is greatest when its people all work together. Thank you all for your dedication to the Outlands. Fare well.

In service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society,

Francesca

FROM THE INCOMING SENESCHAL

Greetings from your "soon to be" Kingdom Seneschal. First, I'd like to thank Maestra Francesca for all the work she has done for the Kingdom in the last two years. I am honored to have the opportunity to serve the Kingdom of the Outlands as its Seneschal, and hope to see many of you at Coronation in Dúthaich Beinne Áird on May 9-10th. Please, those of you who do not yet know me, seek me out and we will speak. I hope to have a Kingdom Officers Meeting for as many officers and nobility as are there.

As with any changeover in office, there may be some confusion for awhile. Maestra Francesca will remain on as my "drop dead" deputy to ease the transition, and will forward any calls she receives to me. You may contact me either via telephone, e-mail, or surface mail. Be patient and allow me a bit of time to respond. For the time being, please continue to send event registration forms and Kingdom event bid forms to me; however...

I am looking for gentles interested in serving as deputies, and am most urgently seeking a "Keeper of the Kingdom Calendars." It will be most helpful, almost necessary, for this person to have e-mail access, and previous experience as a group seneschal is a plus. Objectivity, organizational skills, communication, and timeliness is critical for the maintenance of the official Kingdom Calendar. If you possess these skills and have a desire to serve in this capacity, please contact me directly. I will be seeking other deputies as the need warrants.

When Her Majesty AnneAliz finishes Her reign, she has agreed to be the Kingdom Event Coordinator. I am sure Her Highness is most pleased, as am I. Thank you.

Now, it's cheerleading time... StagsCon II is coming up... SOON! Mark your calendars for Saturday, June 13, and plan to join us in Aarquelle for a stupendous repeat of last year's officer training session. This year promises to be just as informative and worthwhile. Yes, it may be a long way, but it will be worth the effort. Look for the article in this issue of the OH and make plans to attend!

In Service to Crown and Kingdom,

Mistress Coemri nEithne

(who was born into the Society as Katrine Vanora of Maidstone)

FROM THE CHIRURGEON

I have been attempting to increase the availability of warranted chirurgeons throughout the Outlands, as well as the communication level between chirurgeons and other officials such as marshals. As part of this effort, I have appointed two deputies. My Northern Deputy is John Wolf (Aarquelle). His special tasking will be to coordinate with the marshals in devising ways to ensure that unsafe armor is repaired prior to use by a fighter. He will also coordinate with the marshals if design problems in particular pieces of armor or weapons are found to be associated with increased rates of injury. My Southern Deputy is Lord Connor Graham (al-Barran). His special tasking will be to identify and devise ways to handle the special safety issues associated with equestrian events.

StagsCon '98 will be held June 13-14 in the Shire of Aarquelle. My deputy John Wolf is both a CPR and First Aid Instructor. If there is interest in either renewing certification to keep current as a chirurgeon or for your own education, he is willing to run free classes, and he can certify people the same day.

Eileen

FROM THE EARL MARSHAL

Greetings Unto the Outlands

Approximately a year ago, Duke Comar, the Society Marshal, brought forth the concept of a ban on glaives. This was met with severe opposition from the Kingdom earl marshals and was, as a result, rescinded.

However, the upcoming TI mentions a ban on these weapons. THIS BAN DOES NOT EXIST. DO NOT FREAK OUT. IGNORE IT!!!

Please send me any comments or feelings on seige engines and missile weapons at Estrella (past, present, or future).

Please send me Letters of Interest for the positions of Kingdom Marshal of Fence and Kingdom Equestrian Officer.

Thank you, Fight Well, and Have Fun.

Sir Haroun

FROM THE MARSHAL OF FENCE

Greetings to all, from Doña Aindrea Mac Cullaich, the new Marshal of Fence for the Magnificent Outlands-

Due to mundane conflicts, Don Ian of Nightsgate has resigned, and I have been confirmed as his successor by Their Majesties and Sir Haroun. Don Ian was, and will continue to be, an incredible resource for information about rapier fighting. I enjoyed serving as his deputy, and I wish to especially commend him for his efforts and strong, positive presence as the Outlands Rapier Marshal at the last two Estrella Wars.

Their Excellencies, Thorfinn and Rosalind, and Sir Akira generously provided an area and time at the Unser Hafen Dance Collegium for me to run some people through their paces. As a result, the following people are now Authorizing Marshals: Lord Robert Edward Stewart, Lord Bernajoux du Lac, Lady Rivka Vladimirovna Rivkina, Lord Guillaume de Gonzac, Herr Klaus von Nachtwald, Lord Frithuric, and Don Madoch Greyson. Look to these fine people for training and guidance.

I would like to see more interest in attempts to recreate period fencing styles. I strongly encourage everyone to study period fencing manuals, like DiGrassi, Saviolo, and even George Silver. I will be sponsoring a DiGrassi style schlager tournament at Grand Outlandish. Rapier fighters, look to your arms and armor! Reread the rules, and be certain that your equipment meets the requirements.

If you have any questions, comments, or free passage to Scotland, please contact me.

In Service to the Outlands, I remain,

Aindrea Mac Cullaich

FROM THE KINGDOM SCRIBE

Greetings to one and all. I would like to thank the many people who donated their time and skills to teach classes for the Heralds' & Scribes' collegium at the end of March. Most of those who attended have said that they enjoyed the classes very much, and found it to be a worthwhile event.

I have heard recently about some misconceptions regarding the confidentiality of award scrolls. Some people, both scribes and non-scribes, seem to believe that it is okay to tell anyone about an upcoming award, so long as the recipient doesn't find out about it. This is NOT the case. Maintaining the confidentiality of awards is one of the most important duties of the scribes of the Outlands. Awards are supposed to be kept secret from everyone who is not directly involved in producing the scroll.

If there are any questions that a scribe may have about a scroll that he is working on, they should be directed to the Kingdom Scribe, or possibly to the Crown. Please do not consult anyone else. Spreading information about awards in advance spoils the surprise for everyone, and makes it more likely that the recipient will find out about it. Please use discretion when working on scroll assignments. I know that most of you are very careful about this, but I would like to stress the importance of the trust that the Crown places on Their scribes.

On another topic, I would like to announce my intent to step down as Kingdom Scribe sometime during this reign. If you are interested in holding this office, please send me a letter expressing your interest, and a summary of your experience in the SCA. The most important qualifications for this office include good organizational skills, and a good long-distance calling plan. Having an email account is also highly desireable. You can send letters either by US Mail or by email, as you choose.

In service to Crown and Kingdom,

Tatiana

FROM THE EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Directors continue to accept resumes for the positions of Treasurer and Laurel Sovereign of Arms. Please send resumes to: The SCA, Box 360789, Milpitas, CA, 95036, Attn.: Resumes. The last day for acceptance is July 1.

FROM THE CHRONICLER

This month marks the first appearance of Tel Tales, by Master Telbyrne. I've included some of the back episodes to give an idea of the strip's character. I would appreciate comments as to whether or not to continue carrying this comic at the more normal rate of one episode per issue.

There has recently been a spate of problems regarding event articles being apparently lost in the mail and missed publication deadlines (these two are somewhat, but not completely, related). As such, I am in the process of trying to come up with ways of avoiding the resulting heartaches and headaches. The full details are still very much in flux as I write this, but one change I know I will be making is a change in the deadline date. Rather than having it be a somewhat complicated algorithm that no one is capable of remembering, starting with the next issue it will always be the last Wednesday of the month. As the deadline for the June issue coincidentally already was the last Wednesday of May, this is not an arbitrary last-minute change. Until a viable solution to the lost mail problem is working, if you mail me something, please follow it up with a phone call to confirm receipt a week later. It is unfortunately hard to track down where the problem is coming from (wrong mailing address, vengeful postal worker, governmental surveillance/censorship, ...). On a vaguely similar topic, when faxing material to me, please put my mundane name (Dworkin Müller) on the cover page. My co-workers are tolerant, but somewhat easily confused when confronted with too many names for one individual.

I feel I have been in office long enough to have at least a vague notion of what the office entails (no doubt this is more self-delusion than reality). Thus, it is time to start looking for a deputy that would be a viable candidate as my successor. My current warrant expires in just under a year, and if it is not renewed, I believe that the remaining time is barely sufficient to get someone truly up to speed with the myriad details involved.

From time to time, it is necessary for an autocrat to get late-breaking news out to the populace. Please be aware that there is a mailing list that the electronically-connected chroniclers are on, with the address chroniclers@outlands.sca.org. This list exists for discussion between chroniclers and the dissemination of information. Please use it when it is needed.

Finally, StagsCon is coming up in June. I encourage as many Gentles of this fair Kingdom to attend as possible. It is far more comfortable to come and learn about what an office entails than it is to take a position and experience on-the-job training. As regards the chroniclers, I will be distributing copies of the new version of the Society Publications Policy in addition to materials on copyright and Kingdom-level policies. I hope to see many chroniclers and chroniclers-to-be at this event.

Rüdeger

FROM THE ORGANIZERS OF THE MARCH CROWN TOURNAMENT

Putting on any major Kingdom event takes many peoples' time and effort and without volunteers at our sides Crown Tournament wouldn't have gone off so smoothly. There are many others I'm sure that have been missed being mentioned by name. Please note that your help, nonetheless for this mishap, was greatly appreciated and we thank you for your time.

Golias in general: Thanks for hosting this event and the efforts of all towards the preparation. In particuliar, for assisting in cooking, serving, food prep, set-up, etc., Torcail, Eirik, Ava, Treya, Robert, Galen, Meg, and all those others who helped serve. Thanks also for the lovely party time and dancing as usual.

Barony of al-Barran: Thanks for the loan of the tapestries and lists field, and the many serving dishes which allowed us to serve the feast all at once. The feast hall looked great! Also, we'd like to thank the Barony for donating $75 toward the feast. Costs were kept to a minimum that way.

Mistress Monika von Zell and Lady Claudia from the Citadel: These ladies donated the chicken, stuffing, some pies and cookies. Thanks Monika for preparing all of this for us -- the chicken and pies were great! This donation also aided greatly in keeping the cost to everyone at a minimum and was greatly appreciated.

Maria, Gytha and Wilhelm: Volunteers from al-Barran who helped get the food prepared and helped serve. Thanks for your help as usual!

Mistress Richenza and her group: These lovely gentles prepared the wonderful luncheon for the Royals and it was a mighty spread. The food was marvelous.

And to all who came and enjoyed themselves, we thank you for your support as Kingdom Officers, as processional heralds, marshals, lists officers, participants in Crown, and spectators. All had a lovely day -- rain and all!!

Christof and Kathryn

ROYAL ARCHER TOURNAMENT

May 23 - 25, AS XXXIII (1998)

The Fifth Royal Archer Tournament will once again be held concurrently at Brigand's Bizarre and Grand Outlandish to accommodate the maximum possible number of entrants.

In order to compete, an archer must:

1. Be a current paid member of the Society for Creative Anachronism in the Kingdom of the Outlands, and provide proof of membership at the time of the tournament.

2. Be a Kingdom ranked archer (Yeoman, Forester, or Bowmaster), OR if recognized and recorded as an Outlands Bowman, may shoot in a Qualifying Round held prior to the Royal Archer Tournament. New or Novice archers are not allowed to compete for the position of Royal Archer.

3. Use SCA legal archery equipment.

Any archer ranked Yeoman, Forester, or Bowmaster may compete in the SUNDAY Tournament without shooting in the Qualifying Round to be held on SATURDAY at each location.

Any archer ranked Bowman may shoot in the Qualifying Round on SATURDAY to achieve the Kingdom rank of Yeoman or above (a Royal Round score of 45 or over). This is the only opportunity for an archer to become a Kingdom ranked (Yeoman) archer with only one qualifying score.

The position has been established by tradition to be held for one year, thus providing an excellent opportunity for the Royal Archer to be in Court through all of the major events where the Outlands is represented.

CAVALIER HOLIDAY V

Caerthe, May 31, AS XXXIII (1998)

Once again the cavalier attitude will be in full flower. Lawn games of croquet and boccie ball are planned. Cooled drinks (teas, lemonade and water), and cakes and fruit will be served in abundance. I have reserved the picnic shelter again this year so there should be no worries about a moment or two of inclement weather (We laugh at tornado warning sirens). There will again be a search for the most cavalier garb, the best non-cavalier garb, most sumptuous picnic and most decadent picnic; and any other 'best' or 'most' whim that take the autocrat's fancy.

Please note the we will be frolicking on the last Sunday in May instead of waiting for June. Don't worry, this is not the Memorial Day weekend.

This year there will also be a collection for a local food bank. We all see and contribute to the apeals that are made each year around Thanksgiving and Christmas. But what is sometimes forgotten is that their need continues year round. By Spring many of the local food banks are again running low. With this in mind, Lady Kseniya and I are sponsoring a Food Drive in association with Cavalier Holiday. This is not a site fee requirement, but we hope you will consider some of our less fortunate and bring one or more items of non-perishable foods (soup, dry noodles, canned goods, etc) with you on the 31st. As we revel in our good fortune we can bring some good to others.

Date/Time: Sunday May 31st, 10:30 to 4:00

Site Fee: $4.00, children, $3.00, checks payable to SCA-Caerthe.

Site: Berkeley Park in Denver, at the corner of Tennyson & 46th, just east of Lakeside Amusement Park. The site is damp (beer in non-glass containers). Parking is available in the park and on the street. (No parking in the mortuary lot across the street).

Directions: in Denver, take I-70 west from I-25 to Federal Blvd. Take Federal Blvd. south to 46th. Go west on 46th to Tennyson. Go north on Tennyson one block to the park entrance.

Autocrat: Lady Cecelia (Mary Conley), 5015 Beach Ct. Denver, CO 80221, (303) 556-2270 (daytime), (303) 433-0132 (evening), mconley@castle.cudenver.edu

Northwolde, June 5-7, AS XXXIII (1998)

The Incipient Shire of Northwolde sponsored by the Barony of Unser Hafen presents Soiree in the Sage. Huzzah!!! Come join us for our first ever event! Privies will be provided, along with hand washing facilities, unfortunately no showers will be available. Due to the nature of the site, please do not bring any beasts with you, as we do not want to feed the local fauna nor see someone lose a beloved pet. Anyone planning on building their own camp fire while camping please bring a fire extinguisher.

An Archery Tourney and a Fighter Tourney will highlight the day on Saturday, June 6th. A Bardic Circle, Dancing and Singing will highlight Saturday evening, after the Feast, so bring your musical instruments, favorite minstrels in a box (we'll provide the box) and song books (the Event Steward likes to sing, even if he cannot carry a tune in a bucket).

We will be providing a simple lunch Saturday afternoon and Feast that evening. Anyone with special requirements for feast should contact the Feast Mistress well in advance so that we may accommodate you. The site is wet!

How much will this lighten your pouch, you ask? For site, lunch and feast a mere $10! Site fee alone will be $5, with lunch costing $1 and Feast $4. Send your reservations to the Event Steward or contact him by phone or e-mail with any questions.

Unto the goode populace of the Outlands does Sir Berold de Gilbert, Baron of the Citadel of the Southern Pass, send most courteous greetings.

I write to renew my call for the assistance of all goode Christians in rooting out the infidels holed up in the mountains above thys fayre Barony. The date for the muster is not yet know, but will most likely be in late June; the next Outlandish Herald will bring you this detail. We will offer battle on that same day and bring a quick end to these troubles.

This cause is just as these heathens did assist in the kidnapping and ransom of my Lady Viscountess Eirianedd. Their crime has left its mark upon my lady, who continues to languish from a malady unknown. Our physicians instruct that her cure must be found amongst those who inflicted the sickness upon her.

Our physicians continue to assure us that this illness is not the plague. There is no plague in the Citadel and there will be no plague in the Citadel.

Salve Regina!

Berold

In the name of Allah the merciful, the giver of mercy, do I, Sheik Asad u Din, call upon the followers of Islam.

Our brothers living in the hills above the Citadel of the Southern Pass have come to ask for aid in defending themselves from the unjust attack of the local Baron. The infidel is set to strike in late June so haste is needed.

This misguided Christian believes that our brethren were responsible for ransoming his wife. In truth she did spend time among them, but she was lost in the hills and they did but show her hospitality. Since the woman's departure, the village has taken ill and so is unable to fend off the impending attack without our aid.

The Magi have examined the sick and determined that the illness is not the dreaded Plague. There is no Plague In The Citadel and there will be no Plague In The Citadel at the end of June.

In Praise of Allah,

Asad

CRUSADE IN THE CITADEL

Citadel of the Southern Pass, June 27-28 AS XXXIII (1998)

Goode my Lords and gracious my Ladies, a Holy War has been declared to take place in the Citadel of the Southern Pass at the end of June. The muster will be conducted at ten o'clock (10:00 a.m.) at the McKelligon Canyon Pavilion with battle to be joined at the noon hour. Several scenarios will be fought and closely monitored for combatants of exceptional valor. With the conclusion of the warfare we will join for feasting and celebration in the great hall. The board is to be laden with the works of many nimble hands and promises a wide variety. Plays and sundry other entertainment are also scheduled for the evening. The evenings festivities will be concluded by 11:30 p.m.

Sunday will find us in Memorial Park where further celebrations will take place. His Excellency commands a game of armored croquet be conducted. There will also be a Passe de Armes to test the entrants skill with the Knightly weapons.

The fee for this occasion will be a mere $10. Children under 13 will be half price. Make checks payable to: SCA - Citadel. This is for both site and feast. Both sites are dry. This is not a camping event so please make suitable arrangements. To seek shelter amongst our good populace please contact Eirianedd. For all other questions please address yourself to the Autocrat. It must now be definitively stated that rumors of a Plague In The Citadel are without foundation. There is No Plague in the Citadel and there will be No Plague in the Citadel at the end of June.

Until your arrival in the Citadel, Pro Regina Et Regno, Konrad

QUEEN'S PRIZE TOURNEY

Caerthe, July, AS XXXIII (1998)

We will hold the Fourth Annual Queen's Prize tournament in July, A.S. XXXIII, in the Barony of Caerthe.

Rules for Entrants:

1.) Entrants may not be members of the Order of the Laurel.

2.) All entrants must have a sponsor from the Order of the Laurel, Ladies of the Rose, or a Companion of the Desert flower.

3.) Entrants do not have to do something in a field for which the sponsor is known. Entries may be in any field.

4.) Entries will be judged on the aforementioned criteria in a kind, humane, and constructive manner.

5.) Completion of entries is highly encouraged. If the work is incomplete, be prepared to explain the finishing of the entry.

6.) All work shall be completed by the entrant. For this reason, group entries are discouraged, but will be considered as long as there is only one entrant in the group.

7.) Entrants may only enter one item.

8.) Entrants should make every attempt to stay with their entry during the judging as input and feedback from judges is a driving force behind the tourney.

Rules for Sponsors:

1.) Sponsors must be members of the Order of the Laurel, Ladies of the Rose, or Companions of the Desert flower. No one may sponsor themselves. No one may both enter and sponsor.

2.) Each sponsor must bring at least one "prize" or token, preferably made by their own hand. In this manner, everyone will receive at least one "prize"; however, feel free to make extra tokens to award personally to other entrants.

3.) The sponsor may not physically assist in the production of an entry, but is encouraged to teach skills, help direct research efforts, offer advice or encouragement as needed or requested by the entrant including introduction to others that may be knowledgeable and helpful, and generally support the project in order to facilitate the production of the entry.

4.) Sponsors are responsible for preregistering their entrants.

5.) There is no limit to the number of people you may sponsor, but try not to sponsor so many that you cannot give adequate encouragement and help to all.

6.) If either the sponsor or the entrant is unable to attend the event, it is the sponsor's responsibility to make sure the entries/prizes get to the event on time. If the sponsor cannot attend, a surrogate judge will need to be found. The sponsor must contact the Autocrat to make arrangements.

Members of the populace are encouraged to give tokens to the entrant(s) of their choice. All Sponsors will be required to judge a limited number of pre-designated entries. More information will be forthcoming on this issue as time progresses. No one will be required to judge for long strenuous hours, or give input in an area they know nothing about.

To register for Queen's Prize please send the following information to the entry address below: Name, Address, and Phone number of both the Sponsor and the Entrant, as well as an approximate description of the entry following general Arts and Sciences guidelines.

Further information will be posted in the June OH and on the Queens Prize IV web page (URL to be announced).

CLANN WARS

White Mountain, July 17-19, AS XXXIII (1998)

The battle cry has been raised and the gathering has been called! The Clanns will do battle on the field of honor on July 18th and 19th at the Cedar Creek Campgrounds in Ruidoso, New Mexico. The site is in beautiful mountain highlands with potable water, modern shopping nearby, and has a stream running through it. The weather in July can be very mild with light rain in the afternoons and can be chilly at night. Prepare for all varieties of weather. Since the site is on National Forest land, space is limited so reservations are advisable. The site will open on Friday the 17th at 2:00 p.m. and will close Monday the 20th at 2:00 p.m.

On Saturday and there will be melees and tourneys to be fought by both Heavy and Light weapons with teams chosen by random draw. Loch Thioram is again sponsoring their Night/Sweetheart Tourney. There will be many activities for non-combatants which will include Highland games for both men and women, a Bardic competition, and an Archery tourney. On Saturday night there will be a Celtic cookoff where all are invited to compete for best authentic, best adaption and/or most original Scottish/Irish dish, and then join one and all in the Ramada for a Clann potluck (with you providing most of the pot and the luck!). There are upright grills if you want to cook on site or need to heat up your perfections and concoctions.

Prizes will also be given for the best Scottish/Celtic persona, accent, dress, and camp. All prizes for competitions are handmade and are donated by the people from the Shire of Nahrun Kabirun, Loch Thioram, and the Clann MacTaggart. There will be security guards, but since this is such an open and easily accessible campsite, plan on storing and securing your possessions carefully at all times.

This is a discreetly wet site. Pets are permitted, but must be on leash at all times.

The site fee is $15 dollars with a $5 dollar discount for members. Children under 12 are free. Please send reservations to the Autocrat and make checks payable to: SCA - Nahrun Kabirun.

GLORY (FEATS OF HEROES)

Unser Hafen, July 17-19, AS XXXIII (1998)

The Barony of Unser Hafen invites gentles from far and wide to partake of a unique mixture of fighting and merriment, song and swords, as we transform the Pawnee Grasslands into the Current Middle Ages. Team melees, heavy fighter games and tourneys, rapier and archery tourneys will be matched with war drums competition, select classes and bardic circles to make the weekend of July 17 - 20, AS XXXIII, an experience for the ages. Activities for the younger gentles will include a boffer tourney as well as the chance to have a chivalrous warrior wear their favor and fight for their honor. The Hungry Heroes Inn will feature fine foods for famished fighters at reasonable prices (with late night milk & cookies for the young at heart). Fight till you drop, and revel where you fall!

The site is wet (period containers preferred). Drinking water, toilets in permanent structures, good shade and excellent campsites abound. Camp site space is limited, so reservations are required (no limits on day-trippers). Fires must be contained and above ground, and drumming must cease at 10:00 p.m. All pets must remain leashed at all times. Be prepared for instant weather changes, and insect repellent may be a good idea.

Site fee: To be decided. Please see following issues of the Outlandish Herald for updated information.

CAERTHEN WARLORD

Caerthe, July 31 - August 2, AS XXXIII (1998)

On July 31, 1998 at the Pickle Gulch Campground near Blackhawk, Colorado, a Caerthen tradition continues. The Barony of Caerthe is calling forth all of her Fighters, Fencers, and Archers, and is beckoning all other Fighters, Fencers, and Archers, to come and prove their skill and prowess in these Arts on the fields of Combat and Honor. Only Caerthens may be chosen as the successors to the Warlord, Premier Blade, and the Archery Warden, however all are eligible to enter and win the tournaments. Caerthens vying for the three positions should have a prepared processional complete with a Herald, should they prove victorious. Competitors should know that the Saturday tournament is only half of the battle, as on Sunday we will continue the Competition in the form of ferocious melees that will test the skills of all!

Consorts! You have not been forgotten. Caerthe's Consort of Honor, Keturah, is in careful consult and is planning fantastic and fun battle scenarios to take place shortly after Saturday's Tournament where you and your fighter get to participate!

On Saturday Eve, there is a Grand Feast being planned at this wet site. Also, there will be a fun twist on Saturday night for the top finishing Caerthens from the Tourneys on that day, but more on this later.

There will be more on this event in future announcements, but mark your calendars now and make ready to attend this grand Caerthen event. There is limited space available, so reservations will be necessary, but again, more on this later.
